

Critical Care Unit Membership*

A great opportunity to reward 10 nurses on your critical care unit with BACCN membership

Critical Care Unit Membership gives you the opportunity to enrol 10 critical care nurses as BACCN members at a discounted price. Those individuals then receive all the standard BACCN membership benefits including the BACCN journal, discounted conference rates and access to the Learn Zone as part of the required CPD hours for NMC revalidation.

What are the benefits for you?

- 10 membership places to offer to critical care nurses in your unit
- Reduced rates for advertising and recruitment announcements to BACCN members
- One free nurse recruitment advert relevant to your unit via email per year to all BACCN members
- Announcement of your 'unit membership' through social media and news section of the BACCN website
- Send your staff to conference at the discounted member rates (a saving of £600 if 10 members attend).

What are the benefits for your 10 nurses?

- Reduced rates at all BACCN study days and conference
- Free online access to all BACCN's 'Nursing in Critical Care' Journals
- Access members-only awards and grants and European exchange placements
- Free BACCN Journal 'Nursing in Critical Care' - 6 times per year (RRP £66)
- E-Newsletter 6 times per year
- Support for your views and concerns at a national level - we lobby on your behalf!
- Be part of a nationally recognised professional organisation
- Benefit from networking with other critical care nurses in your region
- BACCN website - share in the members-only section, including members message board
- Access to the Learn Zone exclusively to BACCN members providing online learning (video learning material, webcasts and other learning tools to promote best practice). Members can use this as part of the required 35 hours CPD for NMC revalidation.

Terms & Conditions

Unit Membership is subject to approval of BACCN's Membership Secretary.

The Unit must nominate a main contact person. BACCN will communicate with the Unit in relation to its CCU Membership. Individual members will receive regular membership e mails and members' benefits such as website access and the bimonthly Journal in the usual manner. Any changes to this main contact person must be notified to BACCN as soon as practicable.

Individual membership is offered at the discretion of the Unit and is open to new and existing BACCN members. For existing members the discounted rate will commence at the end of their current membership year. No refund of any individual membership subscription already paid will be given.

Unit membership will run on a rolling subscription basis and will be automatically renewed each year unless cancelled in writing in advance of the renewal date by the Unit.

Individual membership will run on a rolling subscription basis and will be automatically renewed each year unless cancelled in writing in advance of the renewal date by the Unit.

The Unit is responsible for the payment of the CCU Membership fee. This fee will cover the annual subscription cost of the Unit's nominated members. It is the Unit's responsibility to notify BACCN of any changes to individual membership, where for example, a member leaves the Unit and the Unit wishes to transfer that membership to another employee.
