Who are the BACCN?

The British Association of Critical Care Nurses is one of the largest UK membership organisations dedicated to the promotion of excellence in the provision and delivery of critical care nursing, through mutual support, education and research.

We aim to:

1. Provide a national voice to shape the strategy for critical care nursing.
2. Promote safe, quality evidence based nursing care to the critically ill patient.
3. Provide wide ranging benefits and opportunities to BACCN members.

Key Benefits:

- Free BACCN Journal 'Nursing in Critical Care' - 6 times per year (RRP £66)
- Reduced rates at all BACCN study days and conferences
- Access to members-only awards, grants and European exchange placements.
- Regular e-newsletters keeping you up-to-date with what's new
- BACCN website – share in the members-only section
- Exclusive access to LearnZone, an online portal with access to videos, webcasts and other learning tools.
- Support for your views and concerns at a national level – we lobby on your behalf!
- Benefit from networking with other critical care nurses in your region
- Keep up to date with current practice and new developments – enhance your career!
- Online access to BACCN's 'Nursing in Critical Care' Journals
- Access to BACCN's Conference presentations
